MBTA

Conveniently located just a mile from JFK/UMass Station, UMass Boston is easily accessible by public transportation. The campus is served by the Red Line, as well as the Greenbush, Kingston, and Middleborough/Lakeville commuter rail lines. Additionally, Route 8 operates daily from Kenmore Square, and Route 16 is available during peak commuting hours from Forest Hills.

CLOSED | Spring 2026 Semester Pass Information

Spring Semester pass sales ended January 9, 2026. If you purchased a pass, find pickup and validity information below. If you missed the deadline, see "Need a Pass Now?" section below.

- Distribution Method: Spring 2026 MBTA Semester Passes will be available for pickup on campus beginning Monday, January 26. Students will receive an email with pickup instructions the week of January 19.
- Pass Validity Period: Spring MBTA semester passes are valid from February 1 to May 31, 2026.
- Plan Your Commute: Plan your commute using the MBTA Trip Planner.

- Pricing Information: View MBTA Semester Pass Pricing Information.
- Link and Bus Passes: Link, Local, and Express bus passes are issued via CharlieCards once per semester. Link and bus passes can be replaced if lost.
- Zone and Boat Passes: Zone and Boat passes are issued monthly on CharlieTickets. All passes are included in the total semester pass cost. Zone and Boat passes cannot be replaced.
- Refund Policy: MBTA passes are non-refundable and non-exchangeable, so make your purchase decision carefully.
- Payment Process: The semester pass cost will be added automatically to your Spring term bill. Cash, personal checks, or debit/credit cards are not accepted.
- Liability: The university is not liable for lost or damaged passes and cannot replace commuter rail or boat passes.
- Subsidy for Undergraduate Students: A $20 nonrefundable fee on undergraduate term bills provides discounts for eligible undergraduate students. STATUS (as of December 26, 2025): The 50% subsidy was fully allocated. Undergraduate students purchasing later in the sales window received an 11% discount. For subsidy inquiries, contact studentgovernment@umb.edu.

Need a Pass Now? Monthly MBTA Options

If you did not purchase a Spring 2026 MBTA Semester Pass through UMass Boston, you can still access MBTA service by purchasing a monthly pass directly from the MBTA.

Monthly passes purchased directly from the MBTA:

- Are not eligible for the UMass Boston student subsidy
- Are not part of the MBTA semester pass program
- Must be purchased and managed through the MBTA's own systems

Purchasing Options:

- Purchase a Bus or Subway monthly pass
- Purchase a Commuter Rail or Boat monthly pass

Students who purchase monthly passes directly from the MBTA will pay MBTA's standard prices without UMass Boston subsidy or discount.
