The UMass Boston Police Department delivers professional, expert police services to every individual we interact with. Our primary objective is to protect our community and the well-being of its residents and properties. Our presence is intended to minimize criminal activity and disorder while improving public safety. We collaborate with the community to address issues that impact the quality of life and public safety. We prioritize proactive measures to prevent crime and its associated fear, and we strive to meet the needs of those we serve by continuously engaging with them.
